Maple Trees in Danger

THE FLEET'S OUT! -- These were just three of the more than 1,000 pleasure boats that filled Channel Lake and other lakes in the area with leisurely traffic last weekend. Yes, summer has officially returned to Antioch and the lakes, beaches, golf courses and tennis courts are becoming just a little bit crowded.

Spraying To Begin Monday

The lives of Antioch's beautiful maple trees are being seriously threatened.

The culprit is a bug known as the "cottony maple scale."

In an attempt to save the trees, the village has to spray and spray quickly.

The project will start next Monday.

"We will spray all the trees on city property as well as those trees on private property that are accessible," said Walter Shepard, director of public works.

The spraying of the chemical, malathion, must be done with a snorkel extending from a heavy machine.

"We don't want to move the machine on private property and tear up people's lawns," Shepard said. "But we'll get those trees that we can reach."

Shepard said Antioch is having the same problem with the "cottony maple scale" that plagued Waukegan.

"The bugs will strip the trees once they emerge from their cocoons," he said. "There is a danger that we might lose the trees."

Shepard pointed out that the spray is "not very toxic. It won't hurt the paint on houses or automobiles, although it may leave a small residue that will wash right off. Nor is it a danger to children or animals."

The village hopes to complete the spraying project within one week.

Burglary Suspects Arrested

Following leads and contacts involving even the New Orleans Police Dept., the Antioch force arrested two Wisconsin men suspected in the June 11 burglary of the Western Auto store at routes 59 and 173.

George J. Smith, 19, of Trevor, and Everett Gentry, 20, of Salem, were charged last Tuesday with the burglary in which 12 shotguns and 25 radios were taken.

Through local information investigating officers Lt. Tim Zelinski and Sgt. Charles Miller were led that afternoon to a Spring Grove home where owner Lewis Fett turned over three of the stolen guns. Apparently he was involved in selling the firearms, police said.

Police were put on Fett's trail through several sources including Island Lake police and an Antioch juvenile who gained valuable information while in New Orleans.

Fett named Smith and an unknown partner in the crime.

Smith was apprehended at 5 p.m. while at work at a local factory.

Smith admitted to the burglary, police said, and named Gentry and relinquished other stolen property. Within 30 minutes Gentry was apprehended at the factory.

The two were transferred to the Lake County jail. Further investigation is pending. Chief Jack Wells reports approximately 75 percent of the stolen goods have been recovered.

A recent development Friday was the discovery of Gentry's car near the factory. An informant reported that be-

MARGE NELSON

Joins Warren Realty Firm

Michael Warren & Co., Antioch Realtors, has announced the appointment of Marge Nelson as Realtor Associate in the office at 392 Lake St.

Marge moved to Antioch 16 years ago from Chicago. She is married to Al Nelson, a lifelong resident of Antioch and head of Nelson Electric.

Marge recently completed a four year term as trustee on the Antioch village board. She served two years on the planning Commission and various other village committees.

On her days off, Marge works in a nearby nursing home, dressing the hair of the residents.

"Marge thoroughly enjoys working with and serving people in the community," said Mike Warren. "I believe she is going to make a lot of people happy with her hard work in real estate."

Having completed an intensive training program, Marge has been awarded the title of realtor associate. She will work with residential properties.

What to Do If We Have A Tornado

Antioch has an effective warning system in the event of a tornado or severe weather warning, according to Civil Defense Director Ed Frazier.

When the alert signal is set off, it has a steady blast from 3 to 5 minutes. This means a tornado has actually been sighted in our general area.

"Seek refuge in the basement near a wall in the most sheltered and deepest spot below ground," Frazier advises. "Bring your radio and tune into WKRS, 1220 AM, Waukegan station will tell you when it is all clear. No siren is blown for the all clear, so you must listen to the radio."

Please do not telephone the fire or police departments. These lines should be kept open for emergency use only, Frazier said.

Tornadoes are most likely to occur in mid-afternoon, generally between 3 and 7 p.m., but they have occurred at all times of day.

BARRY GOLDWATER

Time Has Run Out For the Liberals

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Believe it or not, one of Uncle Sam's top regulators sees signs that the public is becoming opposed to government regulation of business.

Lewis Engman, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, was quoted in U.S. News and World Report as saying indications are that "the public believes the government's role in the marketplace has grown too large."

If Engman is right, and I believe he is, it means the American taxpayer at long last has gotten wise to "spend-and-tax" economics of the liberals in government.

FOR NEARLY 40 years, they have been hoodwinked by liberals who kept coming up with expensive public programs to be paid for - at some later date - by money from the taxpayers themselves.

I believe time has run out for the liberals. The American people are beginning to ask why, if they have to run their households on a budget, the federal government does not.

And where inflation is concerned, the public is starting

TOO MUCH LEGISLATURE

By

LESTER W. BRANN, JR.
President
Illinois State
Chamber of Commerce

Ironically, one suggestion for improving the quality of the Illinois legislature would be to cut down on its quantity.

This suggestion appears to have some merit. After all, a Rolls Royce is regarded as a high quality car, but they don't make many of them.

The present Illinois legislature has its eyes set on quantity. Although this present session is only five months old, legislators have already introduced 4,526 bills and numerous resolutions.

Representatives are much more prolific, having introduced 3,027 bills compared to the senators' 1,499. But then, there are three times as many representatives than senators.

By the end of this General Assembly in January 1977, we could very well have a new record set for bill introductions. All this comes at a tremendous cost, of course. Estimates run as high as $4,000 for each bill passed.

One legislator has already suggested that only proposals be introduced and that actual bills be processed out of the legislature's standing committees. This would certainly cut down on the number of final bill introductions.

Another suggestion that has caught the attention of legislators who are tired of the seemingly endless sessions would limit the legislature in even-numbered years to the consideration of revenue and appropriation measures only.

Under this proposal the odd-numbered year sessions—such as the one currently meeting in Springfield—would be open to all types of bills. But an even-numbered year session would meet only three months from April through June to consider the Governor's Budget and make appropriations to run state government during the next fiscal year. Such a change would require an amendment to the state constitution. Senate Majority Leader Philip J. Rock of Chicago has introduced such a proposal.

The limitation on legislative sessions would have many benefits for the people of Illinois, not the least of which would be the ability to retain some of its best citizen legislators who leave public office because they cannot maintain their businesses or professions and continue to serve.

AARP News

Mr. Onnie Bridges, regional director of the American Association for Retired Persons, installed the new Antioch officers at Brae Loch Country Club June 24.

Dolly Spiering, outgoing president, opened the meeting. Wava Barnes sang "God Bless America," accompanied by Loraine Berndt on the piano.

The invocation was given by Esther Aiani, outgoing vice-president.

One hundred and fifty three members were present.

The annual AARP picnic was held at Van Patton Woods. Violet Feldmann and Esther Aiani provided the entertainment, including a pie eating contest.

A huge cake honored Dolly Spiering's birthday.

No meetings are scheduled during July and August. The next meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 9, at St. Peter's Social Center.

Women of The Moose

The June 19 meeting was attended by 40 women. Florence Ahrens and Lillian Olson received Chapter Pins. Mae Prazak won "Share the Pot."

The Senior Regent, Dorothy Tralewski, was presented a scrap book and a picture album from the publicity committee, and a ring and money gift from the chapter.

The installation of new officers was held June 21 and Stephanie Polson was installed as Senior Regent.

The next chapter meeting will be held July 10. It will be an open meeting.

Our free enterprise system works fine when it is governed by the forces of supply and demand. When big government enters the picture with a list of regulations, it throws the entire system out of balance. When this happens in the retail field the consumer has to make up the difference.

Government regulation of business sounds fine and it looks good on paper. But in every instance where it has been tried it hasn't worked. In fact, it has done just the reverse - made matters worse for the individual consumer.

It might be a good idea if golf courses eliminate their 13th holes, just as tall hotels don't have 13th floors.

It would also cut a few strokes off our scores if we could play one less hole during each round.

We'll have to bring this brilliant idea to the attention of

I ALSO played golf last Friday, and was hit by lightning, too - in the wallet.

Vern Thelen won another $9 from me. But it was worth it to see him shoot a 39 for nine holes.

Vern brought along Ron Winn, from the Stage Stop restaurant in Wilmet, and we watched him shoot a 72 for 18 holes (38-34). On a 277-yard hole, Rod merely hit a screaming tee shot that landed on the green. It was the third annual Joe Frett Memorial tournament in Johnsbury and Rod's 72 won it.

Fire blazed at the Hilltop Cafe, Grass Lake and Bluff Lake roads, early Saturday morning, causing an estimated $8,000 worth of damage.

No injuries were sustained, however, and the restaurant was open for business Monday due to concentration of the fire to the rear and basement of the structure.

70 YEARS AGO: JUNE 29, 1905

Taking off her white skirt and waving it frantically as a signal of distress, Miss Helen Haggery of Chicago brought assistance to herself and a friend who were adrift in a boat and fast being blown out into the lake Sunday. The young women, who live in the North Shore Sanitarium at Winnetka, started out in a rowboat.

60 YEARS AGO: JULY 1, 1915

The opening shoot at George P. Renehan's shooting grounds on Round Lake proved to be a huge success, though at one time it looked as though weather conditions would force a postponement.

One of the most daring robberies committed in Lake County in years was enacted at two o'clock Tuesday morning when thieves backed a two-ton motor truck up to the side doors of three freight cars at Lake Villa and loaded it down with eggs and merchandise.

20 YEARS AGO: JUNE 30, 1955

Burglars Probably Planned a Picnic

The Circus Drive In, Rt. 59 and Grass Lake Road, was the victim of an unusual burglary last week: picnic fixin's.

According to Pete Valentine, manager, the thieves escaped with 24 eight-pound cans of ketchup, three eight-pound cans of chocolate syrup, two boxes of hot dogs, four boxes of beef, three boxes of hamburger and a 30-pound box of french fries. Also taken was a television set and a milk shaker to bring the total loss to more than $400, the sheriff's office said.

It was named after a Dr. Stoughton and contained "Stoughton's Elixir," a mixture of a lot of things used to flavor alcoholic drinks. The bottle was sometimes made in the form of a standing man, and to "stand like a Stoughton bottle" meant solidly, unmoving, and utterly inactive. Maybe that's the way folks stood after taking a slug of the contents. Home Hints: Paint a woven wood market basket a bright color and encourage your child to keep his small toys in it. ## ACHS Studies CABL Land Offer

The Antioch High School Board of Education says it will explore the feasibility of the site designated as the potential donation of land to the schools by the CABL corporation.

The CABL group is hoping its property, west of Tiffany Rd., will be annexed to the village and discussions with the high school and grade school districts are now underway.

The school board last Thursday accepted the resignation of John K. Cantrell, biology teacher.

It also approved the employment of Douglas W. Johnson to teach business education.

Also approved were the following bids: Republic Steel at $3,041 for 60 2-person lockers, Liberty-Asphalt at $5,580 for the resealing and resurfacing of parking lots, and Waukegan Tire Company for the purchase of 16 bus tires and tubes for a total of $1,270. Spinney Run

Farm was awarded the milk contract and Schoep's was awarded the ice cream contract.

Principal Arthur Blecke said summer school enrollment totals 418 students, not including band and choir.

The number of lunch periods will be expanded from three to four next school year.

OAKWOOD KNOLLS NEWS

By JUDY PHILLIPS

Tom and Jim Stroschein and Sue Tragasz, along with 29 other area seventh and eighth grade students and chaperones, recently returned from a five-day bus tour to Gettysburg, Pa., and Washington, D.C.

During the interesting and educational trip, the group visited many famous places, including the battlefield at Gettysburg, the White House, the Capitol Building, Smithsonian Institute and Arlington Cemetery.

An evening tour of Washington, visiting the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, the Kennedy Center for Performing Arts and the National Archives Building was lots of fun.

WHILE TOM and Jim were enjoying the bus trip, their parents, Frank and Loretta Stroschein, and their sister, Valerie, enjoyed visiting relatives in northeastern Iowa, including stops in Des Moines and Cedar Rapids. The Stroscheins also stopped in Elkader, Ia. and saw former Antioch resident Audrey Healy.

Also traveling to Iowa were Bob and Barb Johnson and their daughters, Darlene and Elaine. The Johnsons visited one of Bob's Air Force buddies, Roger Van Ersvelde, and his wife, Louise, in Brooklyn, Ia. and joined in the festivities celebrating Brooklyn's 125th anniversary.

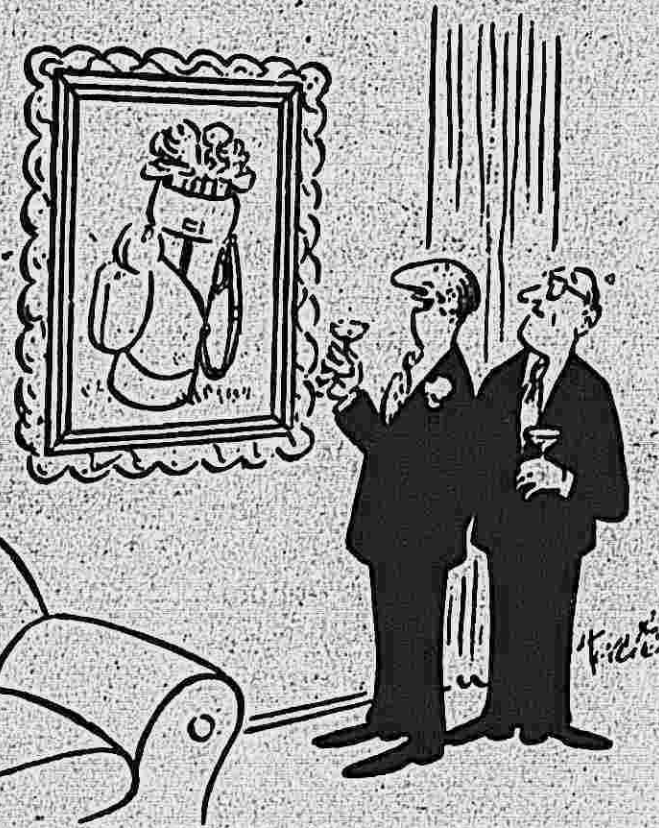

Tim and Donna Hynes had a great time visiting with former classmates while attending Donna's Miami Trace High School reunion in Washington Courthouse, Ohio.

THE BOB OLSON family certainly is traveling this summer! The day after the Olson girls, Tina, Erika, and Amy returned from their trip to Florida, Bob left for Minneapolis to visit his mother, Jenny, and bring Joan's mother, Hazel Pederson, to Antioch for a visit. Erika accompanied her grandmother on the return trip to Minneapolis by train and will stay with Mrs. Pederson for a month's vacation.

Walter and Victoria Drag of Oakwood Drive have moved to Charlotte, N.C. Walter is retired from Cherry Electric and the Drags plan to make Charlotte their retirement home. These two great people certainly will be missed.

JOANNE HILL celebrated her 7th birthday Tuesday, June 24, with 16 of her friends at a birthday party at her home.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Boy, Bill Georgeson's hot dogs sure went well with the beer and dancing at the Firemen's Dance last Saturday evening. No matter where you looked, somebody was devouring one.

As usual George Olisar's band did a fine job and dancing went on until the wee hours. Even some of the Round Lake people came up for a while, sharing their time between fire departments.

SURE WAS sorry Irv Walsh couldn't make it. However the doctor knew best, and kept him in the hospital for a few extra days. Otherwise he would've been there - right in the thick of things. Hear tell he's coming along fine and will probably be home today.

Congrats to the Antioch Ladies Water Fight Team which brought home a first place trophy from Round Lake last Saturday. Nice going girls!

New Chamber members Ed and Janet Miller attended Monday's Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Dutchman Restaurant. They're opening the Boot Jack shoe store, in the premises previously occupied by Roma Lights ... on Main Street.

The Dutchman's meat loaf was great .... and Bud Schichowski and Ray Jenssen helped make the luncheon a success.

I THINK every kid in Antioch is anxiously awaiting the opening of the American Legion Carnival at the Grade School. They should be in operating full force by tonight and the fun will continue throughout the week-end.

The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor its 3rd Annual Arts, Crafts and Antiques Fair this Sunday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the village parking area behind Ben Franklin. It's really quite interesting to see all the attractive things these handy people can make out of scraps, weeds, etc. For all you antique lovers - there promises to be a good selection of oldies. A special treat will be music by the 5th Army Band from Fort Sheridan.

This Saturday morning the Antioch Little League boys will be preparing a pancake breakfast at the Methodist Church for all of you hungry shoppers. Serving will begin at 7 a.m. for you early birds, and continue until 1 p.m. Be sure to come out and sample their superb cooking as well as support a fine organization. It sure does provide lots of summer fun for these youngsters.

Barbara Leider is in room 514-B at St. Joseph's Mercy Center, 1325 N. Highland, in Aurora. The zip code is 60506 in case her Antioch friends would like to send cards. She is recovering from an operation, which interrupted her plans of spending the summer in Arizona. Barbara, 17, just graduated from Antioch High School.

NICE TO SEE Gary Rush who was visiting with his folks for a few days while on his way back to the Naval Academy after a vacation in California.

Hear tell the PM&L players are hard at work on their summer production, "Fiddler on the Roof." Let ya know all the dates and times later. Should be quite a show, I'm told.

Birthday wishes to Ben Albero on the 2nd, to Homer LaPlant on the 4th and to Dave Rush, Donna Gutowski and Conna Coffill on the 6th.

Pete and Glenda Tomaschik and Ray and Judy Kerby will celebrate wedded bliss on July 4. Congrats you guys - have a happy day!

See ya at the pancake breakfast - the art fair and (sigh) the carnival.

HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE Douglas delays wedding plans

By NANCY ANDERSON
Copley News Service

HOLLYWOOD — The Brenda Vaccaro-Michael Douglas wedding plans, fairly firm for a while, are uncertain again, Mike says, because the guest list for the ceremony got too big.

Still, he adds, he and Brenda, totally happy with each other after five years of togetherness, may marry in the fall after he winds up "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," his first venture as a feature film producer.

"We have been planning on being married," Michael admits, "but it would just be a celebration for us and for our friends. We'd have the wedding so our friends could come and have a good time."

"We were thinking about it, when all of a sudden it became such a big deal we couldn't even find a place big enough to hold it. All of a sudden, getting married became such a big hassle the idea just wasn't enjoyable any more."

DOUGLAS

So we decided to postpone it.

"But after the picture's finished, before we go to Africa as we plan to do pretty soon, we may get married."

"After being together as long as we've been, the actual ceremony will be just a bunch of friends getting together to celebrate and enjoy the occasion."

"With that in mind, we started making up a guest list which got larger and larger until it was completely out of hand. One of us would say, 'You can't cut that person out,' and the other would say, 'But you certainly can't cut that other person out,' and that went on until we finally gave up."

"But certainly we may do it — get married — soon."

Asked why they are even considering marriage in these days of informal romantic arrangements, young Douglas gives two reasons.

"First," he says, "we'd marry as a gesture, symbolic or otherwise. And, in the second place, we'd marry because of the possibility of kids."

"Nobody can tell what's going to happen in years to come, what the social customs and mores may be, and it may not be too cool to have a child born out of wedlock."

"I wouldn't want to find out at some later point in time that I'd put my child in a bad situation. Maybe I'm paranoid, but I wouldn't want the slightest stigma attached to a child."

"I mean, just because two people decide something — a life-style — is good for them, there's no reason to involve a child."

Michael reveals that his parents are mad for a grandchild and would be absolutely delighted if he and Brenda married and provided one.

"They've really been pushing," he laughs. "I've never seen anything like it. It's like a grade B comedy picture."

"My mother, along with everyone else, can't wait for us to marry and have children."

"The last three years," he points out, "between doing the series ('The Streets of San Francisco') and working on the picture — yes, I've been working that long on 'One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest' — just about all my time has been swallowed up."

"It tastes rotten—but I love it twice a day."

A man is a lion in his own cause.

Antioch's Babe Ruth Stars Win

ANTIOCH SPARKLED in a 7-3 victory over Marengo here Sunday in the opening game of the Babe Ruth district tournament for all-star teams composed of 14 and 15 year olds. Antioch now faces Barrington in the title game at 5:30 p.m. today at the high school field. Above, a Marengo player reaches second base as Dennis Korjenek awaits the throw, backed up by John Eder (left) and Glen Blanchette.

PITCHING ANTIOCH to victory was Kenn Rosenbrock, who struck out nine and gave Marengo only five hits. Rich Otterson was Antioch's hitting star, connecting for two triples. Shortstop John Eder is behind Rosenbrock in this photo. The winner of this evening's game between Antioch and Barrington will play at 2 p.m. here Sunday against a district winner from Chicago. The winner of Sunday's game goes to the state Babe Ruth championships in Olney, Ill.

Surprises, Thrills At Wilmot Speedway

The underdogs took on the hot dogs and wound up dominating last Saturday's auto racing action at Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot.

Roger Schmitz of Milwaukee started on the outside in the first row for the 25-lap feature event for super modified cars and quickly pulled away from the rest of the 18-car field, holding on to beat hard-charging Ron Bergema of Richmond.

Carmen Manzardo, whose radical new No. 7 has been coming on strong, ran into mechanical troubles and slid off the track coming out of a turn. And sprint car ace Dick St. John, whose No. 1 machine has been setting fast qualifying time in recent weeks, ran into mechanical troubles with a new engine in his car after blowing the regular engine earlier in the week at Beaver Dam, Wis.

The evening's biggest crowd pleaser proved to be Pop Kline, who has been racing for 36 years and admits he is older than the No. 60 his car carries. The Genoa City, Wis., driver came from sixth position to take the lead in the first heat race, only to be passed later by Mike Matthews of Richmond.

Then, starting on the outside of the first row in the 18-car starting field in the semi-feature race, Kline quickly moved out to a commanding lead, only to have Matthews once again move up through traffic to pass him with one lap remaining.

Matthews said later that he really had a tough time getting past Kline. "Don't let anyone kid you about that guy,"

Musgraves To Race At Lake Geneva

LAKE GENEVA - Tom and Ted Musgrave, Mundelein, late model stock car drivers will race Thursday night in a special 50 lap race at Lake Geneva Raceway. The race is the longest distance so far this season on the quarter mile asphalt track.

Tom is current point leader and defending late model stock car champion at the Grundy County Speedway in Morris. He will drive a 1973 Camaro. His brother, Ted, will drive a 1970 Mustang. Each will be making his initial appearance of the season at Lake Geneva.

Stock car racing is nothing new to the Musgrave family. In addition to the fans who follow the brothers, many still remember their father, Elmer. He is a former United States Auto Club late model stock car driver and was a champion at Waukegan Speedway in 1951.

Tom and Ted will face Lake Geneva regulars Joe Torrie, Lake Villa; Vern Browne, Libertyville; and Larry Hicks and Bob Peterson, Lake Geneva. Sportsman and spectator type cars will also race.

Larry Leach of Elkhorn took the lead on the 21st lap of the 25 lap "Battle of the Speedways" race for late model sportsman stock cars at Lake Geneva Raceway Sunday night and won his first feature of the season there. On Saturday nights he races at the Rockford Speedway.

Sid Norton, McHenry, had been battling with John Baumeister, Burlington throughout most of the race and on the last lap he went wide, found traction and was inches ahead to take second place at the end.

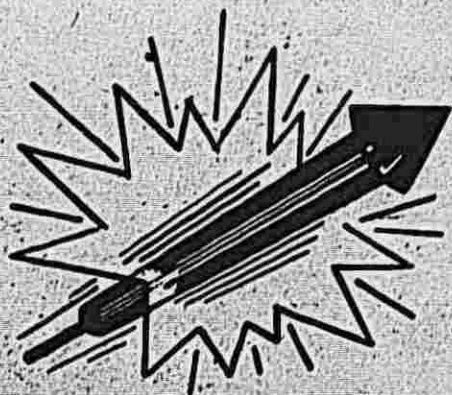

Heat winners were Jerry Kindler, Tom Homan of Antioch, Ralph Rau of Paddock Lake and Ken Henitzpeter.

LYONS-RYAN SHOPPING SPREE winner Dave Nissen, of 397 First St., hurries down the aisles of the Pay-Less food store as his wife Lu Gene watches him fill shopping carts. Dave was the winner of the Lyons-Ryan Ford promotion during the month of May, when anyone who took a demonstration ride was eligible to estimate the number of jelly beans in a giant jar displayed in the showroom. Dave was only three beans short, the closest of 784 entries.

Lake Geneva

Wilmot cars had won and the Lake Geneva cars had three wins also. Rockford Speedway cars registered two wins with the Jefferson Speedway getting one.

Allen Kulwicki, 20 year old rookie late model stock car driver from South Milwaukee, won the 30 lap feature race at Lake Geneva Raceway last Saturday night.

It was his first feature win in late model stock cars. The previous Saturday he had finished second in his first appearance in a 1973 Camaro at Lake Geneva.

Mixed emotions are when your son hits a homer and it goes through your window.

Wilmot

Matthews said, "When his car is working right like it was tonight, he's as tough as anyone on the track. He drives like the old-time dirt truck drivers and that makes it extremely difficult to pass him because he hands his tail out just far enough coming off the turns to hold off someone behind him."

Racing will continue Saturday with a special Independence Weekend program planned. Included in the price of admission will be a fireworks display plus some special surprises. Time trials start at 6:45 and the first race at 8 sharp.

Concession Stand Pilfered

Candy and popcorn met with sticky fingers last weekend. Approximately $40 worth of merchandise was stolen from the Little League concession stand.

Nancy Berchtold reported that the break-in occurred between the time she closed the stand at 4:30 p.m. Saturday and checked it at 9:40 a.m. Sunday. She and Officer Stan Revell determined that entry was gained through a cut screen and broken window.

Revell was also the investigating officer on the scene at St. Peter's School, where seven windows were broken last week. The vandalism was reported at 9 a.m. by Father Francis Johnson, who said another man had noticed the broken windows about 7:30 that morning.

Damage was estimated at more than $225, and appeared to be done with a pellet gun.

There is a spirit which like the father of evil, is constantly "walking to and fro about the earth, seeking whom it may devour": it is the spirit of false philanthropy.

ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

Student Travel Hints - Local student travel offices are located throughout Europe, Canada, Mexico, Australia, New Zealand and the Far East.

These offices will be able to help you find low-cost student accommodations, tell you about inexpensive tours they have for students, direct you towards other students in their city, help answer any questions you might have on the tickets and tours you've already purchased, sell you a ticket on a student flight, a student train and much more.

Be sure to use them while traveling, for they will save you many dollars. That is what they're for - to service students from all over the world.

For a listing of these offices, check with your local travel agency.

If you are one who will be on the move and limited for time; instead of the student eurail-pass, consider the airpass. This as well must be purchased in the United States prior to your departure. The Student Air Travel Association (SATA) Airpass will allow you unlimited travel on any of the student charter flights of which there are many (excluding Africa and the Far East). The Airpass is valid for 45 or 65 days. The 45 Day Airpass is $340 and the 65 Day Airpass is $490. However, this pass is only good through Oct. 31. There are several rules and regulations on the SATA Airpass so be sure and check with your travel agent for he can tell you if it would be a savings or not - depending on your needs and itinerary.

Another "must" of which many never think about until an emergency happens is to get insurance prior to departure. One has to take into consideration the unexpected. I don't like to mention it; but what happens if your luggage is lost or damaged? Or if you become ill or injured while abroad? Unless you adequately insure yourself, you are the one who will incur any additional expenses.

There are several insurance plans designed for students, teachers, etc., traveling abroad for educational purposes. Check with your local insurance man or travel agency.

I hope the above hints have been of some value. Any questions, stop in or give a call.

Evonne Goolagong sees stars — with new style

HOLLYWOOD — Hair stylist Bernard Daley's party for tennis champ Evonne Goolagong at his Beverly Hills salon brought out a crowd of racket happy celebrities including Dan Rowan, Jim Franciscus, Johnny Carson, Merv Griffin, the Edgar Bergens, Valerie Perrine, Glenn Ford, Rod Steiger, and — but why go on?

Stars and tennis players of various ranks ranging from Adam West to Bobby Riggs stopped by to welcome Evonne to her first Hollywood (even though it was held in Beverly Hills) party.

The honor guest wore a new, short, cap-like hairstyle Daley had created for the occasion called "the Goolagong gambit," so titled, the stylist explains, "because it looks equally good at the opening and the close of the day."

During the party, Sandra Giles, Frances Bergen, and others modeled Miss Goolagong's new line of tennis clothes called Tennis Luv.

Marjorie Main's funeral was like her life style, dignified but unpretentious.

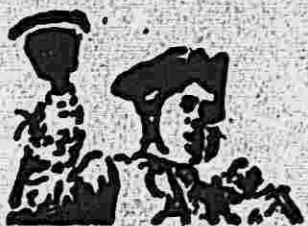

Buried in a black, Ma Kettle dress, she was carried to her grave by six friends who loved her:
Dean Jones, with whom she'd prayed during Bible classes at the Pat Boones'; Ray Anderson, who'd driven her to those Monday night study and prayer sessions; Dore Freeman, long-time supervisor of still art at MGM, one of the studios Marjorie had helped make wealthy; casting director Marvin Paige; Spec McClure, former leg man for Hedda Hopper; and Francis Williams, a friend almost like a son to Marjorie.

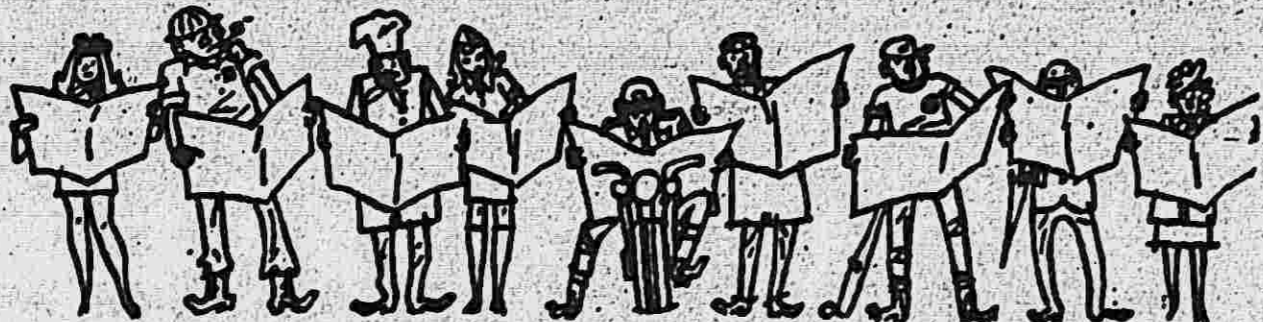

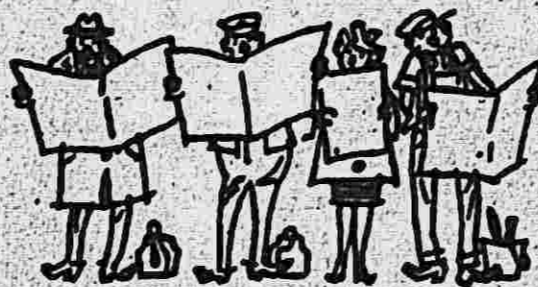

Though Marjorie was consumed by cancer, she was wonderfully blessed, because she didn't know she had the disease until the day before she died.

Arthritic needs to watch weight

By SHIRLEY BRIGHT BOODY
Registered Dietitian
Copley News Service

Arthritis, in itself, can be disabling, but when it is present in combination with obesity, the effects can approach disaster.

The arthritic is often in distressing pain that is aggravated by gross accumulation of fat. He has trouble moving about with every exertion a painful experience and fat adds to the discomfort.

This starts a cycle with additional weight accumulating while the body is unable to participate in physical activity.

Many people suffer from arthritis and it is natural that they seek an eating program to alleviate their distress. Unfortunately, there is no diet, or food schedule, that will help the disease.

The greatest help to the victim is to see that his weight is down and his general health up. Both of these can be helped with a nutritious eating program.

Fat pressing on painful and swollen joints must be removed if relief is to be found. Good nutrition that will improve joint and tissue health will be a major factor in lessening the pain.

Some kinds of arthritic symptoms are directly involved with certain dietary minerals so it may be understandable for people to assume that the diet may be somehow responsible. However, extensive research has not found this to be the case.

Calcium deposits in the joints of some bursitis sufferers are not caused by excessive calcium intake, nor is it caused by a disorder of calcium metabolism. In fact, an additional problem could complicate this condition if calcium were too severely restricted from the diet.

A reduction in calcium would result in the body taking the calcium it needs for other functions from the bones and a gradual demineralization of the bones — osteoporosis — might occur.

Arthritis and rheumatism remain baffling ailments, in spite of long and intensive investigation. Sufferers often experience sudden and unexplained remission of symptoms and this phenomenon has provided quack opportunists to bilk unsuspecting people out of vast sums of money.

All sorts of weird diets, concoctions and specialized food have been promoted as helping arthritics. The long suffering patient, in his eagerness to find relief, is easy prey to those phonies. Gout is often grouped with arthritis and rheumatism; however, there is a marked difference. Gout is the result of an overproduction of uric acid in the body.

It was once thought that gout was helped by eliminating red meat and other protein from the diet. Today, however, it is usually controlled by medicine and dietary restriction of purines found in organ meats — liver, kidney, heart. Anchovies and sardines should also be omitted from the gout diet.

If you are overweight and have any painful malady affecting the functioning of joints anywhere in your body, an immediate — but not fast — weight reduction is essential.

A fast weight loss should be avoided because such a diet will, invariably, be lacking in essential nutrition. A gradual, permanent loss with all nutrients carefully included will give you as much relief as any therapy we know today.

Dear Shirley:

Is it necessary to have some sugar in the diet?

Mrs. P.T.V.

Dear Mrs. P.T.V.:

It is necessary to have some carbohydrate, but it need not be sugar itself. Fruits, vegetables and cereals provide the necessary CHO without the empty calories of sugar.

Dear Shirley:

Is it OK to drink water with meals? A friend of my mother said it was very bad.

Miss D.N.

Dear Miss D.N.:

Avoiding water with meals is a very old idea without any basis in fact. Drink water — and lots of it — anytime.

Bake Sale at St. Peter's

The ladies of St. Peter's Altar and Rosary Society will hold a bake sale after this week's Saturday evening Masses and also after the Sunday Masses.

Co-Chairmen Evelyn Freund, Loretta Schiffmann and Pearl Roach said they hope all the women of St. Peter's will donate their favorite home-made items for the sale.

In the May bake sale more than $300 was collected for the missions. The proceeds of the July bake sale will also be donated to the mission fund.

President Loretta Schiffmann is reminding members that there will be a Living Rosary at St. Benedict's Abbey on Wednesday, July 9, at 7:30 p.m. Those needing transportation can assemble behind St. Peter's rectory at 7 p.m.

Maxine Meyer, chairman of the July 19 rummage sale, will begin collecting "white elephants," clothing and household items on July 7 in St. Peter's school cafeteria. All useable items will be welcome.
